

Revenge on the Lawn

White Welling

Bismallah, Pacific Radio Fire lightens up the networks and fire works the skies above Cleveland, Kabul and Peshawar.

How many fingers on the button, on an architecture of surreal mismatch, a relief map of shallow layer grasses which, taking revenge on the white house lawn, becomes the meadow surface of the White Welling, the necessary de-centering and de-familiarizing of the US Presidency

President Baxter arrives by predator to meet the press over croissants and coffee the entire future White Well its present and its future functions, its 132 rooms, its 55000 sq feet or more, its contemporary need for the fireplace (real and virtual) its kitchens, meeting spaces, private and public spaces, sports and training facilities, its future unknown functions, are all located in the White Well that penetrates an as yet undetermined number of underground floors into the earth

An aerial photograph of a large, circular clock face in a city park. The clock face is green with white numbers and hands. A black helicopter is positioned on the clock face, appearing to be on the number 12. The surrounding area includes trees, a road, and buildings. The image has a grainy, high-contrast quality.

The Pretty Office, said President Baxter is on the meadow where there is no hole-in-one only shallow layer grass.

time to take revenge on the Lawn and configure the innocent surface, the supercheese meadow which is penetrated by ultimate power deep in the White Welling. the supercheese meadow, the field various real and dupe entries and exits, opening up like clams close down subsequently on the least alarm for security and surveillance purposes...
